As of the 25th of May 2018, a new EU regulation called General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) which replaces existing data protection legislation, means we must make sure that we have your permission to collect and use your personal data. Personal data is any Information that identifies you, including your Name, Address, Telephone, E-mail etc

Note: You can grant consent to all the purposes; one of the purposes or none of the purposes. Where you do not grant consent, we will not be able to use your personal data; (so for example we may not be able to let you know about forthcoming services and events); except in certain limited situations, such as where required to do so by law or to protect members of the public from serious harm. You can find out more about how we use your data from our "Data Privacy Notice" which is available from our website. You can withdraw or change your consent at any time by contacting our Data Protection Lead as per our current privacy notice. Please note that processing of your personal data will cease once you have withdrawn consent, other than where this is required by law, but this will not affect any personal data that has already been processed prior to this point.
